

Please keep the Amateur frequencies for Amateurs. The big companies keep spending money on their corporate constituents to make more money. This is fine, this is America, but please think of the people who are there in emergencies, those who do not try to make a profit but try to better the service.